

Message Five—Study Questions

1. Ezra was a priest and a scribe, a priestly scribe, not a letter scribe. What is a priestly scribe?
2. Why did the returned captives of Israel need to be reconstituted, how was this reconstituting work carried out, and what was the result (in type) of Israel's being reconstituted?
3. Describe the need in the Lord's recovery today of priestly teachers, and what does the proper teaching do?
4. What does it mean to be reconstituted with the truth?
5. How can all the saints in the Lord's recovery be trained in the divine revelation?
